FAURECIA NAMED 2018 TOP EMPLOYER USA

20th February 2018

After ranking Faurecia as a 2018 Top Employer in many countries around the globe, the Top Employer Institute once again delivered its certification to Faurecia USA. Since 2016, achieving this label has been the culmination of the company's focus on people development, the Being Faurecia culture, and other initiatives like the those aimed at achieving work/life balance. The Top Employers label is awarded to leading employers who continuously support talent development at all levels and strive to improve working conditions.

According to Chris Rau, Vice President of Human Resources for Faurecia North America, "For the third year in a row, Faurecia in the United States is honored to be recognized as a Top Employer. We are committed to engage our employees in a dynamic workplace, to foster their professional development and provide opportunities that will take the industry and the world into the future of mobility. We share this honor with all our Faurecians in the United States and we look forward to what is next."

As previously announced this year, Faurecia France, Germany, Spain, the Czech Republic, Poland, India, and China achieved the 2018 certification along with Faurecia USA. Faurecia was also honored for with the Top Employer Europe label for its work throughout the region.
